To: Our "Class Moms"
Shari Tomlinson and Señora Garcia

Both of these incredible women? staff members? "moms", have dedicated so much time and effort to our class, far beyond what we could ever do for them. We dedicate this year's yearbook to them as a final "thank you" for their hard work, generosity, and the countless lessons which they have left us with.

iDevices are the most popular at PHS... iPhones, iPods and iPads beat out droids and other devices.

proctr class prophecies.

Maria Cayla: After sticking to her motto, #CollegeOrDeath, Maria obtains her doctorate degree and opens her own hospital where she performs heart surgeries on peasants.

Christopher Clain: After years of focusing on soccer, hunting, fishing, and four-wheeling, Chris enters the reality television world where he becomes "The Bachelor" and gets to spend time with the women of his dreams. He ends up proposing to soccer superstar, Alex Morgan.

Riley Coombs: Her ambitions of becoming a physical therapist come true after years of college. Luckily for Riley, the US Women's National Soccer Team has a position open for an athletic trainer and she snags the job!

Rebecca Elrick: After years of bombarding Justin Bieber with countless Twitter messages, he takes note of her obsession, and asks her to spend a day with him. After spending a great day together, he personally invites her to attend his concert - backstage! She is chosen as the "one less lonely girl!"

Amanda Eugair: Amanda, classified as an animal hoarder, stars on Animal Planet where she is interviewed about her 35 cows that she lets roam in her house and all over her land.

Paige Farley: Paige's love for others comes to an all time high around the holidays as she travels around to nursing homes playing her ukulele and singing, which instantly puts smiles on everyone's faces.

Anthony Galameau: Anthony moves down to Texas where he wins the lottery and uses the money to buy a huge commercial garage where he takes old hot rods and muscle cars and is able to work on the car of his dreams, a '72 Chevelle SS.

Jazmin Goetz: Her love of the arts brings her to New York City, where she discovers how much she enjoys living in the city. While teaching art classes to children, she has her artwork submitted to The Metropolitan Museum of Art and The Museum of Modern Art.

Leland Harper: Years of working out inspired Leland to earn an Exercise Science degree. He opens his own gym to encourage others to live healthier lives. Meanwhile, he competes in various weight-lifting competitions and is recruited to the Olympic team.

Dermot Hughes: "Back in HIS day", hard work always paid off. Just when he thought that didn't seem to be true anymore, he is asked to join L.A. GALAXY where he becomes the star player of the team.

Marshall James: Marshall's life plans take a twist when all of his research allows him to successfully take over the world. He forces everyone to learn the Japanese language and watch his Youtube channel on the daily.

Noelle Jepson: After breaking out of her quiet shell, Noelle participates in Karaoke Night at college every week. The news of her singing ability breaks loose, and soon Demi Lovato asks her to sing with her on tour.

Cody Landon: After needing to repair many of his vehicles due to off-roading adventures, Cody's expertise comes in handy when he opens his own shop. Before he knows it, professional basketball players such as LeBron James and Derrick Rose come to him for car help. They reward him by asking him to play basketball with them.

Brodie Langlois: While having soccer withdrawals after graduating, Brodie takes up the varsity coaching job at Proctor. She coaches PHS students for many years, including her two younger sisters and coaches them to back-to-back state championships adding more championship parades to her career.

Christopher Miles: All of his musical talents help him put together a band that travels around the world opening for the Slash Conspiracy and Avenged Sevenfold. Slash is so impressed with his talent that they ask if they can combine bands and perform together.

Jordan Mitchell: Taking in many stray and abandoned cats becomes one of Jordan's biggest hobbies, and she ends up treating them as her own children. She gathers so many that she does not know what to do with them - so she trains them to become a basketball team full of cats!

Samantha Monaco: After graduation, Sam wins a trip to travel around the world. While traveling, she experiences various cultures, and falls in love with the ways of life in the foreign countries. In between travelling, she resides in Sweden, where she fills her days with writing, music, and art.

Travis Nassau: Travis' lines of, "Soiled it!" and, "Suttup!" become global trends. MTV tracks down the mastermind of the new trends, and hire him as the host of various new comedy sitcoms.

Ashley Perry: Her nannying abilities become handy when she becomes a stay at home mom down in Missouri for her 2 children, 2 dogs, birds, and hedgehogs.

Keith Plontek: Keith becomes a Pastor and his unconditional love for his family and friends is spread throughout his church every Sunday morning. All of his "Free Hugs" and little pick up lines never fail to make people smile.

Jacob Tomlinson: Who needs engineering? Jacob takes a suggestion from one of his college classmates and runs for President of the United States. To his surprise, he wins the election and his no-nonsense personality allows him to become a legendary leader.

Carly Trombley: While going on a shopping spree in NYC, she runs into Ellen DeGeneres where she is asked to co-host her show. Ellen is so impressed that when she is ready to retire, she has Carly take over her show.

Alyssa Valerio: While trying on clothes at GUESS, she runs into Tyra Banks and she is asked to compete on America's Next Top Model. Alyssa is a fierce competitor and ends up winning. GUESS instantly offers her a $100000 contract.

Jacob Webster: Jacob's dedication to his local volunteer fire department pays off when he is offered a full-time job at the Chicago Fire Department. He is such a great addition to the squad that he is asked to be a guest on the NBC Chicago Fire show.

Middle School Peer Leaders

Post

Tagged: Back Row: Madison Fetterolf, Lillian Lang, Amanda Gates, Nicholas Blongy. Front Row: Marie Roberts, Meredith Parker, Emma Shaw, Nathan Greb.

Comment: Middle School Peer Leaders consists of middle school students who are committed to making healthy choices and encouraging others to do so as well. These students help raise money for muscular dystrophy by selling shamrocks, they help organize a hat day that benefits St. Jude Children's Hospital, events for Red Ribbon Week and several other school-wide activities. The group is advised by Mrs. Esslinger.

Post

High School Peer Leaders

Comment: Members of the High School Peer Leaders are committed to promote healthy lifestyles. Peer leaders focus on many different issues including bullying/harassment, healthy relationships, making healthy decisions, drug, alcohol, and tobacco prevention, and driving safety issues. This year they sponsored Teen Violence Awareness Month and seat belt safety during Red Ribbon Week. Peer Leaders are affiliated with SADD (Students Against Destructive Decisions). They are advised by Mrs. Molner.

Student Council

Comment: The Student Council is our connection between the school administration and the entire student body. This group plans activities that benefit our school and local community. All grades elect two representatives to vote and make decisions on behalf of their classes. The Student Council is advised by Mr. Rosenberg.

Comment: Membership in the Redfield Proctor Chapter of the National Honor Society is the highest academic honor the faculty can bestow upon students in grades 11 and 12. Students must demonstrate excellence in scholarship, leadership, service, and character. Members of the NHS complete both group and individual service projects throughout the year. Group projects include food drives, conducting the Winter Carnival penny war, and hosting a blood drive. The NHS is advised by Ms. Wehof.

Model United Nations

Tagged: Back Row: Lukas Shaw, Morgan Howard, Mackenzie Hickey, Evan Smith, Tori Breese, Nicholas Holzworth. Front Row: Mr. Mott, Alyssa Valerio, Maria Cayia, Dermot Hughes, Jacob Tomlinson.

Comment: In January ten students, some returning and some new, traveled to Yale University in New Haven, Connecticut with Mr. Bloodworth and Mr. Mott to attend Model United Nations. PHS students represented the country of Cyprus as they attempted to solve world problems. They discussed the Syrian Civil War, world health issues, law of the sea, human trafficking, global climate issues, food security, and other significant international issues.

Post

Upward Bound

Tagged: Eliza Tooley and Paige Farley

Comment: Upward Bound is a program funded by the federal government that offers a challenging pre-college experience to high school students with academic potential. Students participate in the program at Castleton State College. The goal of the program is to help students get a general idea of what college life is about. Students meet regularly during the school year for tutoring and once a month as a whole group with students from other schools. During the summer, students participate in a 6-week residence at Castleton State College.

Comment: Students work on a variety of pieces throughout the year performing concert, jazz, and marching music. Combining with the high school band, they participate in the Halloween, Loyalty Day, All-State and Memorial Day parades. This year they took home the Mayors trophy and won "Best Costumed Marching Band" in the Halloween parade with their rendition of "Crocodile Rock" by Elton John. They are taught by Mr. Audet.

Comment: The students work on a variety of pieces throughout the year performing concert, jazz, and marching music. The band participates in the Halloween, Loyalty Day, All-State and Memorial Day parades. This year they took home the Mayors trophy and won "Best Costumed Marching Band" in the Halloween parade with their rendition of "Crocodile Rock" by Elton John. The band also performed for senior citizens at the Godnick Center in Rutland and the Flynn Theatre Jazz Competition. Band is taught by Mr. Audet.

Rock Band

Tagged: Back Row: Chris Miles, Leland Harper, Leah LoCascio, Miranda Blake, Megan Elrick, Shaun Blanchard, Paige Farley, Tori Breese, Noelle Jepson, Ryan Johnson, Mr. Audet. Front Row: Lukas Shaw.

Comment: The Rock Band plays a variety of rock music from different eras. They perform concerts for the general public, at area schools, and at various venues. This year the band played at the cancer fund-raiser "Making Strides Against Breast Cancer" walk-a-thon at Castleton College. Rock Band is taught by Mr. Audet.

Post

Ukulele Chorus

Comment:

Students learn to master the basics of the Ukulele while singing at the same time. They perform various concerts through-out the year. This class enjoys taking popular songs and applying them to ukulele. They have nicknamed themselves "the Pukes" (combining the "P" from Proctor with part of Ukulele). The Pukes are taught by Aaron Audet.

Rock Climbing

Tagged: Back Row: Maddison French, Nick Holzworth, Ryan Johnson, Tori Breese, Fisher Pockett. Front Row: Emilee Dupuis

Comment: Indoor rock climbing is a team sport in which the climbers need to correctly and completely climb specific routes using only certain holds. The climbs are worth different amounts of points depending on their difficulty. Climbers on the team pool their best four climbs to get their team score. In our second year as a club sport, some of this year's team was new and started with the basics and worked their way up to intermediate climbs. Our returning climbers worked on intermediate and even some expert climbs by the end of the season. The Proctor Rock Climbing Team is coached by Ms. Wehof.

Comment:

Each summer, the American Legion sponsors Boys State and the American Legion Auxiliary sponsors Girls State. Delegates are selected based upon scholarship, leadership, character, service, and interest in government. Boys State took place at Lyndon State College and Girls State took place Vermont Technical College. While there, students participated in a week-long mock government and connected with other students from around the state.

Geography Bee

Post

Tagged: First Place: Liam Duggan. Runners Up: Emma Shaw and Amanda Gates

Comment: Geo Bee is a contest designed to encourage student interest in the subject and to increase public awareness about geography. At PHS, all 7th and 8th grade Social Studies classes participate in the preliminary rounds with Mr. Rosenberg officiating in December. Congratulations to Liam Duggan who placed first, and to runners up Emma Shaw and Amanda Gates. Liam will be representing PHS at the state Geo Bee at Middlebury College on Friday, April 4. Mrs. Dowling, Emma and Amanda will be there to cheer for him!

African Drumming

Tagged: Noelle Jepson, Morgan Manning, Chris Miles, Emma Reichert, Madison Chamberlain, Alexis Bride, Sierra Thornton, Keith Piontek, Mr. Audet.

Comment: Students who take African Drumming learn to play traditional West African rhythms on the djembe drum. They are also introduced to some of the culture of West Africa. Each member receives a Djembe' drum to use while talking the class. This year the group performed at the Winter Concert, the Variety Show and Arts Night.

Lady Phantoms Vs. Cancer

On February 11, 2014 the Lady Phantoms raised over $2800 in their game against Woodstock through donations and raffles. $500 was donated to the Paul Wager Scholarship Fund and the remaining money was given to the Foley Cancer Center to the Beast Cancer Program.

NHS Induction

Eight new members were inducted into the Redfield Proctor Chapter of the National Honor Society on January 8, 2014. Keynote speaker Preston Garcia gave an impressive speech that challenged the new inductees that was mixed with just the right bit of humor.

Rollover Car

During Red Ribbon Week, the Peer Leaders brought in the roll over car to show teachers and students what happens when you don't wear a seat belt and you get into a crash.

The Helen Keller Experience

Frau Burke's English 10 class read The Miracle Worker. To help them understand, she had them cover their eyes and ears to help them understand what it might be like to be deaf and blind.

Rock Band

The Rock Band and the Senior Rock Band performed for the first time in the Cavern, Proctor's new performance space.

Lunch Performance

Appearing in their first public performance, the PHS Ukulele Chorus, nicknamed the Pukes, entertained the lunch crowd prior to our Holiday Break with some good music.

Parachutes in Physics

Physics students constructed miniature parachutes using their own resources. The goal: to get "Diving Dave" safely to the ground given the construction requirements they had to follow. With Miss Wehof's help, they tested each parachute from the top of the school to see how successful they were, made modifications, and tried again!

Jamie Utt Tolerance

After hearing Jamie Utt, a diversity and anti-bullying speaker, at HOBY Leadership Conference, Megan Elrick decided he was just what Proctor needed. With help from the Academic Boosters, Jamie helped PHS high school students understand how they can stand up to prejudice, hate, and bigotry. He also empowered middle school students to stand up to bullying.

Physics Bridge Competition

Following strict requirements for construction, Miss Wehof's physics class built popsicle stick bridges. Becca Elrick and Miss Wehof went to Norwich University for a bridge competition and entered their "Girl Power" project, constructed by an all female group of physics students.

Halloween Parade

Dressed as crocodiles, The PHS band marched in the Halloween Parade as they performed Elton John's "Crocodile Rock". They received "Best in Parade" and "Best Costumed Marching Band" awards. Rebecca Elrick represented PHS as Pumpkin Princess. Our float showcased Elton John (played by Steven Goodhue) at his famous white piano.

Ilze Luneau Basketball Show

Ilze Luneau uses basketball to motivate. She is the first person (male or female) to ever dribble 5 and 6 basketballs using just her hands. She amazed us by dribbling 5 basketballs on an indo board and so much more. Ilza invited volunteer students to assist; some held spinning basketballs, others tried their hand at juggling, and one even got to eat pudding. Ilze made the point that practice, practice, practice makes perfect and gave a clear message about setting goals and not giving up on something that we are determined to accomplish. Thanks to the academic boosters for funding her visit to PHS.

Homecoming Spirit Week

A student led initiative dreamed up at a lunch table had the entire school getting in the spirit. In addition to our traditional maroon & white day there was color day (a different color for each class), generation day (from 7th grade infants to 12th grade senior citizens), nerd day, and super hero day. No competition, just plain fun!

Winter Concert

The PHS Winter Concert was held in January this year. Middle and high school concert bands, high school jazz band, African drumming and the Proctor ukulele chorus all had a chance to shine.

Middlebury Hockey State Champs

PHS girls basketball and soccer teams weren't the only ones to earn gold medals this year. This winter our own Erika Carroll played on the Middlebury Girl's State Championship Hockey Team! A big congrats to Erika and her fellow teammates.

Blood Testing in Science

Mr. Johnstone's Biology class spent a fun lab class testing for their blood types. This lab was not for the faint of heart as they pricked themselves to draw blood.

Cigar Box Guitars

In the culminating activity to a 7th grade Project Based Learning Project where students built their own cigar box guitars, students listen to Rick Redington. Mr. Redington, a local singer songwriter and musician who uses the cigar box guitar in some of his acts, performed some of his own songs and performed some of the students songs with the 7th graders.

8th Grade Wellness

8th graders kicked off their "Fit for Life" Project Based Learning Project at the Shale Hill Obstacle Course in Benson. They walked almost 4 miles and did over 20 obstacles and it looks like they even had a lot of fun!

Jazz Festival at the Flynn Theater

In March, our High School Jazz Band travelled to the Flynn Theater in Burlington, Vermont where they performed their own set of music in front of a panel of music teachers. While there, they also had the opportunity to listen to bands from around the state.

The Lady Phantoms finished their regular season with an overall record of 10-3-1. With a new coach, eleven new players on their team, and playing a D-2 schedule, the ladies started out the season in a slump. It didn't stay that way for long though. The ladies beat Westside in both homecoming games, and tied with D-1 Brattleboro. The ladies did an amazing job in playoffs and brought home the Division IV State Championship trophy. This year the State Championship game was held in Bethel. After double overtime the score remained 2-2. Proctor then outscored Black River in PKs and won 3-2. The team was coached by Butch Abdelnour and assisted by Scott French. The team will miss graduating seniors Ashley Perry and captains Riley Coombs, Rebecca Elrick, Brodie Langlois, and Alyssa Valerio.

The Lady Phantoms completed their regular season with a record of 18-2. Their theme this year was "TOUGH"; not just physically, but mentally and emotionally tough. The team wasn't favored coming into the season but their "TOUGH" theme and attitude, along with hard work and determination, enabled the ladies to secure the #1 seed by winning their last 7 games and beating MSJ and Fair Haven, two teams that they had lost to earlier in the season. The Phantoms faced the Green Wave in the finals where they came back from a 7 point deficit at half time to beat MSJ in the State Championship Game. This 3-peat win retired the Rotating Division IV Trophy; it will now live forever in Proctor. This year's team was coached by Chris Hughes and assisted by Lisa Bora Hughes and Jacob Tanner. JUNIOR VARSITY GIRLS BASKETBALL

Front Row: Sierra Thornton, Rebecca Elrick, Hannah Ashby, Morgan Anderson.

The JV girls, coached by Jacob Tanner, ended their season with a record of 5-5. A relatively young team, the ladies worked hard for each and every point as they learned to work together as a team. Returning team members look forward to continued success and wish graduating seniors Rebecca Elrick and Ashley Perry success in their future.

JUNIOR VARSITY BOYS BASKETBALL

The JV boys, coached by Rick Eaton, ended their season 10-4. From the start of the season, the young JV team knew how to win with their great team chemistry and dedication to basketball. They were never out hustled and worked for every loose ball on the court. The team played a high level of basketball throughout the season and will have a bright future in basketball.

Back Row: Andre Greb, Tyler Goodhue, Derek Almond, Peter Carrara, Matt Okerman, Coach Eaton.

Cover

The most popular Apple devices - iPads, iPhones, and iPods- elements from these devices combined to create the cover of our book!

Dedication Page

Inspired by an iPhone "iMessage". Our dedication is an "iMessage" to the "Class Moms"!

Senior Pages

Pages 4-11

Have you ever used the Notes app on your devices? The format of the senior blocks this year is similar in style to the Notes application created by Apple BEFORE the upgrade to OS7.

Senior Superlatives

Pages 11-14

Seem familiar? The seniors of 2014 are sporting their superlatives in the Instagram application style!

Senior Class Will and Prophecies

Pages 15 and 17

No, Proctr is not spelled wrong - at least not for the Tumblr format! The class will and prophecies were inspired by Tumblr, the popular blogging site.

Pages 20-21

Want to stay connected with our seniors? Check out the bottom of the page to find their user names for some favorite applications including Snapchat, Instagram, and Twitter.

Underclassman Portraits

Pages 22-29

Similar to the cover, the designs of iPads and iPhones inspired the look of our underclassman pages with Instagram style collages.

Teacher Portraits

Pages 30-31

When we think of technology at PHS we think of Chromebooks-- what better background for our teacher portraits page! (We couldn't help but express a bit of our frustration that we feel when they don't work... we included an error message.)

Clubs and Activities

Pages 36-40

Stay connected with the clubs and activities at PHS on our Facebook inspired pages and see what the advisors have to say!

Stafford

Pages 42-43

Tweet, tweet! Our Stafford students pages are coming at us Twitter style.

Winter Carnival

Pages 46-53

The Winter Carnival page was inspired by Pinterest! Reflect on this year's festivities by looking at our pinning and posting!

Year in Review

Pages 55-58

Timehop, an up-and-coming application, takes us back in time to review the events throughout the 2013-2014 school year!

Sports Teams and Awards

Pages 59-70

Check out PHS sports while scrolling through our pages on a "desktop computer"! ESPN eat your heart out!

Business Ads

Pages 80-98

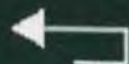

Don't forget to close the "ad"! The business ads are styled like the pop-up ads that we see while playing games on our devices!

The Yearbook Experience: making our book

As I close a chapter in my life and reflect on 13 years of designing the Proctorian, there are so many thoughts tumbling through my mind. Yearbook has been one of the most rewarding and overwhelming experiences in my teaching career and each year has it's own behind-the-scenes story that I'll always remember.

Yearbook class is unique; students learn while designing something authentic, a piece of Proctor history. It's FUN but it's also hard work. In addition to page design and photo prep skills, students have learned about leadership, ethics, accountability, adaptability, personal productivity, personal responsibility, self-direction, and social responsibility. They've gained valuable skills in the areas of critical thinking, communication, creativity, collaboration, information & media literacy, and the list goes on and on. Each theme brings about new learning too. In 2006 we dug into 60's quotes and song lyrics and discovered who Seth was. In 2009 we learned how to create graffiti tags with hook-ups, hollows and pipes. We learned lots about copyright in 2010 with our game boards, and again this year with social media. In 2010 students discovered what the "&" symbol is called. And through it all, most would say (myself included) that it was truly a rewarding experience.

Thank you "Yearbook Matt" (Matt Clark from Jostens) for your 10+ years of excellent service and support. You answer every question promptly and follow through always. No task is ever too small or too unique to look into on our behalf, even scratch-n-sniff stickers! Thanks for thinking outside of the box with us year after year.

Thank you Gary Bouchard for taking yearbook photos on our behalf! You've been taking photos of Proctor students for more years than I can remember! In addition to school portraits and sports team photos each year, you give of your own time to climb onto the roof and take our all-school photo in good weather and bad, you join us for Winter Carnival day taking team photos and candids throughout the morning, and on the years we ask, you take our club and activity photos. Thank you for donating your time and expertise to our school and our yearbook!

Ad day lunch at Ramuntos

And last but not least, Fisher* memories, our adopted yearbook staff member!

11/8/13 Fisher pulled out the 1984 yearbook and really liked the embossed silver foil on the end sheets.... thanks FISCHER... we did that this year on OUR end sheets!

12/6/13 Fisher took themey pics for us without even knowing it; students using devices!!!

12/19/13 Fisher had to choose a font to use in a Photoshop project and he picked OUR themey yearbook font, Myriad Pro!

3/20/14 We had Fisher join us for our Divider Page photo shoot

*next year would have been YOUR year :)

The People Behind the Book:

Thanks Mrs. Harger and Amber Euber for being a part of our crew in the fall.

The funny and memorable things that happened along the way...

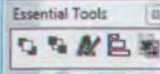

Reid and his selfies. Face-zooming laughs. Copyright stress: finding ways to communicate our theme and stay within copyright laws. Opening our LOCKED door every 5 mins for someone to be let back in. Creeping on everyone on social media to fill our pages with themey stuff. Printing themey stuff to the Library... thank you Mackenzie for grabbing our printed page out of someone's hands!! Our finger print try-outs: Brodie won and HER fingerprint is all over our book! Ryan J pretending to hear our themey conversation through the door. Fischer's theme obsession. Riley and her "love" of Christmas Songs!! It's a good thing it only comes once a year. Thanks for persevering. Chris wiping out in his chair and knocking his head on the cupboard on the way down. How'd he DO that?!?! OUCH! Reid designing Nutting's ad; it took FOREVER! "Chris--missing links for you to fix!" Megan and Mackenzie spicing things up by demonstrating the crab dance during a dull moment. Reid selling our last ad over the phone, gotta love good connections, "hey Bare...". Chris and his envelope addressing skills. Brooks talks themey in study hall... "Megan, selfie???" And our favorite... Evan and his good ideas... "What if we made our own yearbook..." We know you meant to finish the sentence. Thanks for the good laugh Evan. Your wish came true!!
